IT CAME FROM MARS

A play by Joseph Zettelmaier

Directed by Claudia Scott

This comedy set in 1930s New York follows a troupe of radio actors attempting to rehearse their own show the night that Orson Welles delivers his famous War of the Worlds broadcast. Watch as the actors fly into hysterics as they believe they're about to be obliterated by aliens. Truth and loyalty square off against fear and paranoia in this show written by one of Michigan's brightest playwrights.

ASSISTED LIVING

by Deirdre O'Connor

Directed by Chuck Goddeeris

Presented by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service Inc.

Anne Kelly needs help. She's pushing forty and still lives with her mother. Her deadbeat brother won't return her calls, and the ancient family home seems to be falling down around her. When a younger man with a troubled past comes into her life Anne begins to see the positive side of not always being the grown-up. This dramedy is a funny and surprising look at the struggle to discover where our families end and we begin.

KISS THE MOON, KISS THE SUN

by Norm Foster

Directed by Cindi Moll

A thirty-five-year-old man with the mental capacity of a seven-year-old meets a pregnant young woman in crisis and the two form a lasting friendship. This touching story about people finding the nerve to take responsibility and persevering against the odds will have you rolling in the aisle as well as clutching for your tissues.
