Making God Laugh BY Sean Grennan

Making God Laugh follows one typical American family over the course of thirty years' worth of holidays. Starting in 1980, Ruthie and Bill's grown children – a priest, an aspiring actress, and a former football star – all return home where we learn of their plans and dreams as they embark on their adult lives. The empty-nester parents contend with their own changes, too, as old family rituals are trotted out and ancient tensions flare up. As time passes the family discovers that despite what we may have in mind, we often arrive at unexpected destinations. November 5,6,7,12,13,14,19 and two on the 20th (2:00 PM matinee and 8:00 PM evening show).

Of Divine Interest BY David Durham

Jerry enjoyed retirement for about a minute. His retirement buddy, and house mate Fran has to now hear him complain about the boring life he has ended up with. Giving in to a repetitive daytime TV ad, he sends in for a genealogy review. Things heat up when the FBI delivers the world changing results. As news spreads, his life now has to accommodate TV reporters in his living room, foreign spies, security guards, pilgrims on the porch, clergy in the dining room, professional escorts, and Aunt Sylvia - a bigger than life mystery herself. Everyone wants a piece of him - literally. All this forces Jerry to choose his lane. What does he really have faith in? What has he been missing that would make retirement a new beginning instead of a drawn out end? Oh, and the Pope is on the way. Audiences have the opportunity to watch the hilarious way all these elements string themselves together to raise Jerry's appreciation for what used to be mundane.

January 28, 29, 30, February 4,5,6,11, and two on the 12th (2:00 PM matinee and 8:00 PM evening show).

The Hero and the Hag BY Sean Paraventi

Things aren't as they appear to be on this Halloween eve, as our hero Mark takes a mystical, comical journey without leaving the backyard of a Halloween party in Evanston, IL. He meets a cast of costumed-characters who teach him life lessons, as he discovers a pregnant, smoking nun can be much scarier than the grim reaper and you never know where pearls of wisdom will come from. The Hero and The Hag is a delightful romp, with twists and turns and outrageous characters, but at its essence, it's a story of true love.

April 22,23,24,29,30, May 1,6, and two on the 7th (2:00 PM matinee and 8:00 PM evening show).

- Priority seating — Based on receipt of payment.
- Easy ticket exchange — You may exchange your tickets for any other performance of the same play. Just email rcptickets@gmail.com or call Pamela Mayer at (313) 532-4010.

- Your ticket will be entered in a raffle for an RCP souvenir.
