GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER

by Todd Kreidler Directed by Eric Goldstein Assistant Directed by Eileen Sinclair White

A progressive white couple's proud liberal sensibilities are put to the test when their daughter brings her black fiancé home to meet them in this fresh and relevant stage adaptation of the iconic film. Blindsided by their daughter's whirlwind romance and fearful for her future, they quickly come to realize the difference between supporting a mixed-race couple in your newspaper and welcoming one into your family

Oct 25-27, Nov 1-3, 8 and two shows on the 9th (2pm matinee and 8pm evening show)

KNOCK THE BALL LOOSE

by Sean Paraventi Directed by Jamie Howland Assistant Directed by Kez Settle

At first, John and Becky appear to be a couple of middle-aged empty nesters. But each is harboring a secret. He's having an affair while she's developed a taste for the good life—acquired through shoplifting. While Becky confides to her therapist, John's frustrated mistress loses her patience and confronts Becky just before pulling off another heist. The incident proves cathartic and radically changes the lives of all involved.

Jan 24-26, Jan 31-Feb 2, 7 and two shows on the 8th (2pm matinee and 8pm evening show)

MAD GRAVITY

By William Missouri Downs Directed by Kenneth Franzel
Assistant Directed by Bree Murphy and Christopher Branham

A comedy about Archie and Eudora, two Dada performance artists who have built a theatre in their living room. Every night before a live audience they act out their lives. You've heard of reality television; think of it as reality theatre. Tonight's performance concerns their teenage daughter who wants to marry the son of Dr. Joe and Mary. All the parties involved have been invited, but when the kids forget to tell Dr. Joe and Mary about the live audience all hell breaks loose!

Apr 25-27, May 2-4, 9 and two shows on the 10th (2pm matinee and 8pm evening show)
