SKELETON CREW BY DOMINIQUE MORISSEAU

Directed by Jimmie Comer III

Oct 9, 10, 11, 16, 17, 18, 23 and two shows on Oct 24th (2 pm matinee and 8 pm evening show)

At the dawn of the Great Recession, workers at one of Detroit's last auto stamping plants face an uncertain future. As the threat of closure looms, Shanita, Faye, Dez, and Reggie must navigate difficult choices about work, family, and their dreams. Powerful and deeply human, Skeleton Crew is the acclaimed third play in Dominique Morisseau's Detroit Cycle trilogy.

LOVE, LOSS AND WHAT I WORE BY NORA EPHRON AND DELIA EPHRON

Directed by Tiffany Stano

Jan 29, 30, 31, Feb 5, 6, 7, 12 and two shows on Feb 13th (2 pm matinee and 8 pm evening show)

Memories of life events, clothing, accessories and difficult mother/daughter relationships highlight the bonds women share in this play of monologues and ensemble pieces about women, clothes and memory.

MY MOTHER AND THE MICHIGAN/OHIO WAR BY PAUL STROILI

Directed by Samantha Teter

April 23, 24, 25, 30 May 1, 2, 7 and two shows on May 8th (2 pm matinee and 8 pm evening show)

Izzy's husband Freddy loved Michigan. A history buff from Lambertville, his lifelong quest was a full-scale re-enactment of a local battle, the Michigan-Ohio War. But when a bizarre papier-mâché accident leaves Izzy a widow, she calls on her children to return to their childhood home to see Freddy's dream realized. Historical turns to hysterical in this comedy about family, football and what happens when a Wolverine and a Buckeye fight for the Toledo strip.
